Program Details Policies

- All families and individuals are welcome!
- Registration opens August 29th, 2022.
- Classes start Wednesday, October 12th, 2022.
- Classes are held two days per week: Monday and Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. and a required online lab.
- Classes run the entire school year unless otherwise specified, with breaks for holidays.
- There will be an immersion camp held in the spring.
- All children must have an adult with them.
- Preference is given to Native families and individuals. If space is available, other individuals and families are also welcome.
- Meals will be provided during classes to ease the burden of attendance for families and individuals.
- Five families will be chosen to receive attendance stipends.
- If more than five families apply for stipends, the allocation will be determined based on annual household income.
- Families who receive stipends must commit to participating for three school years and be willing to act as language ambassadors to the community.
- Families who are slated to be language ambassadors will receive language books, kits, and iPads – a $750 value – as well as receiving $200/week when attending five hours of classes in the week.
- Language ambassador families will be required to help promote Lingít language in the community through activities and marketing.
- Families and Individuals who do not choose to be language ambassadors may have to pay some or all of the cost of books and kits. They may choose to use their iPhones or personal iPads if they do not wish to purchase a new iPad. Language materials are being developed to put onto iPads.
- Infectious disease health protocols will be in place during classes.
- CIA reserves the right to cancel classes with low enrollment. Schedules can be changed at any time.
